TEACHING THE HORSE.

Will Learn Anything His Muscles Can Perform.

Expert horsemen believe that a horse can be taught to do anything that it is possible for an animal so formed and to be utterly fearless. Thus we know of horses rushing into battle with a fearlessness that is magnificent, although in the beginning of their lives they may have been foolishly timid, shying at everything unusual that happened to be seen in their travels.

In order to teach a horse fearlessness he must be accustomed to all sorts of sights and sounds. He must come to know that because something that he sees or hears is unusual it does not follow that it is harmful, for it is the unusual things that frighten him. The horse is an animal of one idea at a time and is not able to discriminate, so say the men who have made a study of the horse. While he will travel along quietly close by the roar of a train, he may tremble at the flutter of a piece of loose paper flying in the wind. It is not the frightfulness of the object that seems to alarm him, but the unfamiliarity of it. Horse trainers say that the mistakes made in "breaking" and training a colt is that it is too often done in the seclusion of some country road instead of amid the sights and sounds that the animal must necessarily become familiar with later.

As soon as the horse becomes familiar with anything and has learned to believe that it will not hurt him he will stand quietly or trot along peacefully, even though all sorts of noises and queer sights are about him. Thus the artillery horse will stand amid the roar of cannons, being used to the noise and not knowing that the sound predicts anguish and death. It is well to accustom a horse to unusual sounds as soon as possible after he is trained for riding or driving. It renders him safe and docile, even though he be a spirited animal. A certain trainer of horses said that an ideal school for horses would contain thrashing machines, pile drivers, steam drills, electric, steam and elevated cars, a band of martial music and a gang of quarrymen blasting rock. A horse that was drilled among such a bedlam as this would indeed prove immune to strange noises. The gentle family horse, petted by man and child, is not always trained to all this, yet he often makes a useful and faithful animal, loved by his owner and evidently making some return of affection.—Detroit Tribune.

Late Beginning.

Sir Walter Scott began to write his celebrated novels at forty. Milton began "Paradise Lost" at fifty. When "East Lynne" appeared its author, Mrs. Henry Wood, was forty-five. Cromwell was forty-one when he began his public career. The year of the hegira was the fifty-third of Mohammed, and Marlborough reached his independent command at the same age. In spiritual examples Abraham was seventy-five when called out of Charan, and Moses was eighty when he stood before Pharaoh as the champion of Israel.

They Were All Right.

He was a typical backwoods farmer. His first visit to a city restaurant, however, had taken away none of the appetite he had at home, where everything was placed in large dishes on the center of the table and each one helped himself. The waiter had piled the food around the plate in the customary little dishes, which the farmer cleaned up in turn. Settling back in his chair, he hailed the passing waiter:

"Hey, there, young man! Your samples are all right. Bring on the rest of the stuff."—Judge.

A Process Reversed.

"You regard campaign calculations as a distinct branch of mathematics?"

"Yes," answered the erudite personage. "The method differs from all others. You start with the answer and then work backward and evolve a problem to demonstrate it."—Washington Star.

His Facial Furrow.

Mr. Billson, between whose lower lip and chin there was an unusually deep wrinkle, spoke impatiently to the barber.

"Haven't you got my face shaved yet?" he asked.

"Not quite, sir," said the barber apologetically, "I haven't dug your ditch yet."—Chicago Tribune.

Some Sources of Headache.

Among the many things that produce headache are long continued straining of the eyes, sudden excitement, bad air and want of ventilation, alcoholic drinks and a variety of other causes. Another fruitful source of headache in men is the absurd fashion of hats which society now imposes. Tight boots and shoes will also cause headache and destroy comfort of motion and happiness. They prevent the flow of blood to the extremities and cause slight congestion of the brain. Tea drinking is often an unsuspected cause of headache, causing, as it does, exhaustion of the nervous system, and coffee the same thing.

Ministers' Babies.

Mrs. Brown said 't if they was to go on a vacation trip now was a very good time, 'cause the baby was a year old, 'n' I said I c'd agree with her there, 'cause if we waited till next summer the baby might be only a month old or maybe only a week old, for I must say 't so far 's my observation 's extended there never is no countin' on how old a minister's baby 's goin' to be 't any given time.—"Susan Clegg and Her Friend, Mrs. Lathrop," by Anne Warner.

All the Same.

The horny handed man calls it "pay," the skilled mechanic "wages," the clerk "salary," the banker "income," a landowner "rent roll," a lawyer "fees," a burglar "swag," but it all comes to the same at the end of the week.

An Insurance Story.

They tell this story down on Wall street: The executive officer of a great insurance company, happening one day to meet a friend in the street, found himself violently upbraided because his company refused to invest in the bonds of an enterprise with which his friend was connected.

The insurance man stood it a few minutes, then said carelessly, as if he were ordering a box of a new brand of cigars, "Oh, well, send me up a million and a half of them."—World's Work.

PUT ON THE BRAKES.

Slow Up, or Before You Know It You May Be Off the Track.

The limited goes sixty miles an hour. In the smoker men joke and play cards and tell risque stories. The day coaches are crowded and comfortless. The heavy sleepers as they sway to and fro make only a gentle rocking for the people who chat and read and nap. Crash! Engine and cars and flesh and blood are ground up together in a shapeless, horrid mass. Off the track!

So goes humanity's train. Here is a boy who got to running on a fast schedule. He began by pilfering from his father's till. As he grew older he made faster time. Down grade he goes, and soon comes the crash. Newsboys cry a murder and a suicide. The crowd halts for a moment. His friends murmur, "I never thought he was so bad!" A young man is off the track!

A young girl thinks her mother is too slow for these record breaking times. Mother is "old fashioned." The girl goes to places her mother has warned her she should not frequent. The bloom is brushed from the fruit. * * * One day a brazen, drunken creature, cursing and shrieking, is loaded into the patrol wagon. A woman is off the track!

A man gets in a hurry to be rich. His father went slowly, carefully, successfully. But father's methods will not do. What's the use of moiling and toiling when a quicker way may well do the business? So-and-so has speculated successfully. Surely I am as shrewd as he. * * * A pistol shot. A man is off the track!

Our age is a rapid one. Business and society go at a sixty mile clip. Rather than be sidetracked for a time men will drive their trains into the ditch. Many of them run wild. There are frequent collisions and wrecks innumerable by getting off the track.

Look out, thriving but venturesome merchant and reckless young woman and gay young man! The race is not to the swift alone. Put on the brakes. Slow up, or before you know it you will be off the track.—Milwaukee Journal.

D. E. O'KEEFE.....EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

FOR POSTMASTER.

F. W. Richardson, one of the best known newspapermen in California and editor of the Berkeley Gazette, is a candidate for the position of postmaster of the college town. A better or more capable man for the office could not be selected. Besides being a life long Republican and a great worker for his party he is an honest man of ability and strength of character. He is very popular with the newspapermen throughout the State and has been elected President of the California Press Association by them for two terms. The residents of Berkeley may be congratulated if they secure Mr. Richardson for postmaster, for he will make them an honest, able and conscientious official.

A DEMAND FOR SWAMP LAND.

We have received a copy of the biennial report of Surveyor General Victor H. Woods which gives a detailed account of business of the office during the past two years. It is carefully compiled which shows Mr. Wood's ability and the fitness for the position he fills. The report shows that there is a rapidly growing demand for swampand overflowed lands. The General suggests that some plan should be formulated to reclaim the lands which constitutes a large portion of the most fertile valleys of the State. The number of acres of swamp land in this county for which patents have been issued is 17,264 and the number of acres sold for which certificates of purchase have been issued is 2,119.

ROSS FOR APPELLATE JUDGE.

It now seems assured that the amendment to the State Constitution creating district courts of appeal was adopted at the recent election. This law will make necessary the appointment by Governor Pardee of the stipulated number of district judges, and it is important that the right men be selected. These appellate courts are designed to assist the Supreme Court in disposing of the volume of cases that are appealed from the Superior courts, and the judges appointed will hear and decide many cases that now go to the higher court, hence the judges should be men of integrity and ability. The Hon. George C. Ross of Redwood City seems preeminently fitted to honor the bench of the newly created courts. He is everywhere recognized as one of the leaders of the bar in this State, and he is a man of fine legal attainments and irreproachable character. The people of this section would be greatly pleased seould he be made one of the appellate judges.—The Palo Altan.

RAMBO'S MAJORITY.

The official returns from Santa Cruz County are before us and show that State Senator Rambo managed to pull through in that county by 19 votes. As at every previous election where the nominee came from Santa Cruz it devolved upon San Mateo to pile up a respectable majority, and Mr. Rambo lead his opponent here by 399 votes.

There will be no exhibits permitted in Festival Hall at the Lewis and Clark Exposition at Portland next year. The building which will seat more than 2,500 persons, will be used for concerts, lectures, and conventions.

FIGHT WILL BE BITTER.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall of Beall, Miss., has to say: Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by P. A. Ryan, druggist. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free.

If the Philippines are given to Japan Uncle Sam might as well make Guam a consolation prize and toss it to the Dzar.

REVOLUTION IMMINENT.

A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness, or stomach upsets. Electric Bitters will quickly dismember the troublesome causes. It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the Kidneys, and Bowels, stimulate the Liver, and clarify the blood. Run down systems benefit particularly and all the usual attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters is only 50c, and that is returned if it don't give perfect satisfaction. Guaranteed by P. A. Ryan, druggist, Redwood City, Cal.

According to the Express of that city there is a political firm in Los Angeles operating under the name of Gas, Rum & Co. Apparently Graft is too modest too have his name appear with the names of his partners.

SHORT LOCAL SUGGESTIONS

An Epitome of County Seat Happenings Gathered by the Reportorial Staff.

Redwood City Realty Company Files Articles of Incorporation this Week.

The home of Mr. G. Thompson was brightened last Tuesday by the advent of a baby boy.

H. D. Peterson, who formerly conducted a cigar store in Redwood, visited friends here this week.

James Hanson has been confined to his home this week by a severe case of the grippe.

Tom Rockwell, who has been quite ill for the past three weeks, is again at his post at Heise's.

Mrs. E. Eckman, who has been here for the past two weeks, left Thursday for San Francisco, where she will make her permanent home.

All persons having tickets for the Native Daughters' minstrel show can secure reserved seats by calling at the Pioneer Drug Store on Monday or after.

Mrs. Repoltz, who has been spending the past two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Carl Muller, left for her home in San Francisco Tuesday.

The Great Western Vaudeville Co. drew its record attendance last Tuesday night. The company will be here next Tuesday night with an entire change of program.

Arthur E. Weed, formerly principal of the Pescadero school and now filling a like position at Pleasanton, Alameda County, was a Redwood visitor yesterday.

Dr. A. F. Maine has purchased a fifty foot lot on Stambaugh street from E. E. Dulac. After the first of the year Dr. Maine will erect a handsome residence.

Mrs. Collins of Delano, Kern county, who has been traveling in the Eastern States for the past few months, spent a few days this week with her niece, Mrs. C. C. Kirtland.

Carl Muller will erect a neat six-room cottage on the lot adjoining his Stambaugh street home, next spring. Mr. Muller is an energetic young man who has foresight enough to see that Redwood City is a good place in which to invest his money.

This week was a record-breaker in the Recorder's office. More deeds were filed than have ever been received in the history of the office. This shows that there is a great and growing demand for San Mateo county real estate.

The stock for the Hull Hardware Store arrived this week and is being put in place. A complete line has been purchased and the store when opened will be one of the neatest and best equipped in the valley.

Mrs. Fred George went to Mendocino county last week to spend Thanksgiving with her husband. On her return she was accompanied by Mr. George, who remained until Thursday, when he again left for Mendocino.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson spent Sunday with Mr. Peterson's parents. Mrs. Peterson, after spending the past three months with her parents, in Wisconsin, returned to her home in Oakland last Thursday.

Chas. T. Hill, manager of the Tacoma Mill Co. at Tacoma, Wash., visited old friends in Redwood Thursday. Mr. Hill formerly lived in Redwood, being employed by Hanson & Co. It is twenty-two years since he was here last, and he is greatly surprised at the many changes which he found.

The Redwood City Dramatic Club will play the stirring drama, "A Noble Outcast," for the benefit of the Redwood City Kindergarten about the middle of January. Stage manager Shrewsbury has selected the members who will act the different parts, and the rehearsals for the production will soon begin.

The Redwood City Realty Co. filed articles of incorporation at the County Clerk's office this week. The capital stock of the corporation is $50,000, of which $70 has been subscribed. The business of the company is to deal in real estate. The directors are A. D. Walsh, J. L. Ross, H. W. Schaberg, T. P. Maloney, Cornelius Cullen, Robert Brown and Geo. C. Ross.

Tax Collector Granger collected taxes to the amount of $42,298.87 during the month of October, and for November there was paid into the office $182,016.39, making a total of $224,514.11 paid on the first installment. A balance of $83,485.89 remains to be liquidated on the second installment.

The engagement is announced of Miss Clara Crowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Crowe, of this city, to Mr. Chas. H. Herrington, a substantial business man of San Francisco. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride's parents on December 15th.

Mrs. Robert Danneberg of Palo Alto visited friends in Redwood Thursday. The many friends of Mr. Danneberg will be pleased to learn that he has almost entirely recovered from the illness which has confined him to a San Francisco hospital for the past few months, and is again at his post as Station Agent.

John Bacon returned from the East on Thursday, after an absence of two months. He visited friends in Virginia and Ohio. While visiting the fair at St. Louis he was taken ill with blood poisoning and was laid up for four weeks. This marred his pleasure somewhat, but he saw all the sights of the great exposition. Mr. Bacon was glad to get home to the land of perpetual sunshine and flowers.

Winnie Snow recently resigned his position as chief clerk of the Western Meat Co. at their San Francisco office to accept a place as head bookkeeper with a San Francisco wholesale house. Mr. Snow had been with the Meat Co. for twelve years, having worked up through all the clerical positions of that firm.

Edward Sampson and family, who have been spending the past three months with relatives in the East, returned home Tuesday. While absent Mr. Sampson visited Missouri, Kansas and Minnesota, taking in all of the points of interest en route. Although he had a very pleasant time he is glad to be back in Redwood again. On Thursday Mr. Sampson moved with his family into the Hanson house, lately vacated by L. B. Thomas.

The barkentine John D. Spreckels, from Alaska with 600 tons of codfish for the Alaska Codfish Co. at the mouth of Redwood creek, struck very severe weather last week while off the Oregon coast and for a time those on board feared that they would be wrecked. She was entirely dismantled and nearly helpless. Fortunately assistance was sent to her and she was towed to this place, where her cargo is discharged.

Attorney Thomas J. Butts of Santa Rosa and father of Virgil Butts, so well known here, was married in San Francisco Thursday to Mrs. Margaret C. Hayes. This makes Mr. Butts' fourth matrimonial venture.

The Bay Shore and the Redwood City Salt Works have finished their harvest and completed a very successful year. The yield of the two companies was approximately 10,000 tons.

The clever performance to be presented by home talent Saturday night, December 10th, under the auspices of the Native Daughters, promises to be a great success.

Dr. Ross has had some fine wire fence sent to Woodside to enclose his 10-acre tract adjoining the Congregational church property.

Shredded Wheat with fruit and cream, Triscuit with Imperial cheese, served free at Heise's store to-day. Ladies invited to call.

James Cronk took twenty men to the Virginia Mill Thursday to fell timber. They will commence immediately to get out logs for next season's supply.

Don't miss the "Ragtime Reception" at the Alhambra, Saturday night, December 10th. It will be equal to any good professional show that comes to Redwood.

H. Folger and family came out from the city Saturday and tarried over Sunday at their beautiful summer home at Woodside.

E. Mourot has received a large 40-foot smokestack which he will have erected over his laundry furnace.

Sale of seats for the "Ragtime Reception" will open Monday. Seats on sale at the Pioneer drug store.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Proceedings Had in Probate and Civil Matters the Past Week.

Estate of Alvinza Hayward, deceased. Return of sale of certain real estate in San Francisco to Frank H. Johnson, further continued to December 8th.

Sale of certain real property in San Francisco to the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company for $285,000, confirmed.

Estate of L. A. Mason, deceased—Hearing on final account further continued to December 8th.

Estate of Edward Clifford, deceased—Order made setting aside whole of the estate to the widow, Bridget Clifford, for her support.

Estate of R. M. Digges, deceased—Hearing on final account of the executors, further continued to December 29.

Elizabeth D. Johnson vs. German American Insurance Company—Hearon petition of plaintiff to dismiss the proceedings on motion for a new trial further continued to December 8th.

San Francisco Commercial Agency vs. A. P. Fitch et al.—Order made transferring trial of action to the Superior Court of San Francisco.

THE DEBENEDETTI CASE.

On Trial This Week Before U. S. Commissioner Heacock.

The case against Joseph Debenedetti was up for hearing before United States Commissioner Heacock Thursday. At the examination the Government was represented by Assistant District Attorney Benjamin L. McKinley, and the defendant by Craig & Craig, Geo. C. Ross and Campbell, Metson & Campbell. The charges against Debenetti are that his naturalization papers, issued to him by the Superior Court of this county thirty-one years ago, had been obtained by fraud. The case was tried before the Grand Jury some time ago, but it failed to indict.

Thursday a motion was made by J. E. Craig to quash the complaint and dismiss the proceedings. He stated that defendant contends, and it is not disputed, that the county court had full and comple-e jurisdiction to hear the naturalization matter and to determine whether or not he was entitled to his certificate of naturalization.

Commissioner Heacock overruled the motion and then the defense interposed a demurrer, which was continued for further hearing. At the suggestion of Commissioner Heacock the case was continued until January 16th.

An Important Sale.

This week an important sale of real estate in this city took place which means much to Redwood. It was the John Curran property, on A street, which passed into the possession of W. J. Dingee. This deal completes the purchase of the entire block bounded by A street, the county road and the small street in front of Mount Carmel church. The properties of Mr. Kelterer and Mrs. Hanson were bought some time ago. It is understood that Mr. Dingee will clear off the buildings and transform the block into a beautiful park. Mr. Dingee is negotiating for the buildings across the street from the county road to the depot, in order that he may have an unobstructed view from his residence. Mr. Dingee intends to expend considerable money in improving and beautifying the property.

Another Election Contest.

Antone Joseph, who was defeated for Supervisor of the Fourth Township by Joseph Dabenedetti, will begin a contest for the office and will file early next week his complaint in the Superior Court. Fraud and conspiracy will be the grounds on which the case will be brought. Dibble & Dibble of San Francisco and Jas. T. O'Keefe will appear for Joseph, while Geo. C. Ross will look after the interests of Mr. Dabenedetti.

Dancing Lessons.

Miss Jean Huddy, a teacher of fashionable ball room dancing, will give private instructions exclusively at her home at 38 B street, San Mateo. Her father, the late William Huddy, was one of the best known dancing teachers in San Francisco, where he taught for 25 years.

Those that are, think everyone else is.

PROPOSED ELECTRIC ROAD

J. F. Parkinson, Backed by Eastern Capitalists, to Build One.

The City Council of San Jose has granted J. F. Parkinson a franchise to construct an electric railway over the streets of that city. Private rights of way in Santa Clara county, to the county line at San Francisquito creek, have nearly all been secured.

W. F. Hanrahan, who is connected with the Parkinson electric railroad enterprise and has been securing the right of way, told the Times-Gazette in an interview that the contracts have already been let for the materials, stock and equipage of the new road, and that the company is ready to proceed with the construction immediately upon the settlement of the franchises they are now endeavoring to secure through the different towns. Except through the towns the road will run entirely over private rights of way. It is fully expected that the road will be completed and in operation by the 1st of January, 1906. It is already financed by Eastern capitalists.

There have been two different routes surveyed from Mountain View to Santa Clara, one through Sunnyvale, the other further west, through Cupertino. It is not fully determined which of the two routes will be selected.

Surveyors have been surveying in this county for the past two weeks, and when the survey is complete an application will be made to the Board of Supervisors for a franchise. The route of the proposed road has not been made known, but it is thought will parallel the county road.

Visit the Kindergarten.

It is the earnest desire of the members of the Kindergarten Board and of Miss Rockwood (the Kindergartener) to have all who can find the time, visit the Kindergarten between 9 and 12 and observe the children at work. Thus all will form a better and truer idea of the aims and results of the work. It is to the interest of all citizens that Redwood should have a kindergarten and that all children from three to six should attend.

It must be clear to all that the child needs some training before he enters public school. We attend to the physical child, taking great care to give the child a strong body, the foundation of all future; why should not the mental foundation also be looked after? What the child loses before entering public school can not be given to him at any other time. The child does not learn to read and write in kindergarten but gains that which enables him to more quickly learn when he does take up such studies.

Kate Douglas Wiggins, who has spent years in kindergarten work, says: "If our children will spend two years in a good kindergarten, they would not only bring to the school those elements of knowledge which are required, but would have learned in some degree how to learn and, in the measure of their progress, have nothing to unlearn."

Bill of Exceptions Filed.

The bill of exceptions in the Chatham-Mansfield election contest was filed in the Clerk's office last Saturday. It contains 318 typewritten pages, giving a full history of the case. The transcript to be filed in the Supreme Court is now in the hands of the printer and will be ready within the next thirty days. It is believed the Supreme Court will pass upon the case in a few months after all the papers shall have been filed.

Elected Second Lieutenant.

Virgil Butts was elected Second Lieutenant of Co. E., 5th Regiment, Infantry, at Santa Rosa, last week. Virgil has been a member of the company but a short time, while the man whom he bested had belonged for nine years and had served in the Spanish-American war. His election is very gratifying news to his Redwood City friends, as it shows his popularity in Santa Rosa.

The Cappes Estate.

Mrs. Agatha Cappes has applied in the Superior Court for letters of administration upon the estate of her late husband, W. Cappes, who died at San Mateo on November 17, 1903. The estate consists of real estate at San Mateo worth $1100 and personal property valued at $320. The total value of the estate is placed $1420. The heirs at law are Agatha Cappes, the widow, and Joe C. and W. C. Cappes and Delphin, Agnes and Rosanna Cappes.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Services—Sunday School at 10 A. M.; morning prayer and sermon at 11; evening prayer and sermon at 7:30. Beginning Sunday night the evening sermons will be a series of twelve on matters of Church History, explaining the position and attitude of the Episcopal Church. First subject, "Prophecy of Christ's in Ceremonial of Jewish Service."

At Mission of the Good Shepherd in Belmont there will be a service of evening prayer and sermon every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by the rector of St. Peter's church, Redwood City.

Ask Dingee's Aid.

A delegation of Redwood City's representative business men waited on W. J. Dingee Monday evening and asked that he use his influence with Gov. Pardee in securing for Geo. C. Ross one of the appointments as Appellate Court Justice for this district. Mr. Dingee assured the gentlemen that he would do all in his power to further Mr. Ross' candidacy.

There are a number of gentlemen high in the legal profession who are eager to become an Appellate Judge. Mr. Ross, however, is the equal of any of these and the superior of many. Should he succeed in securing the appointment, as everyone in this county sincerely hopes he will, he will without doubt be one of the most efficient and painstaking judges that ever sat on the California bench.

A physician says that women seldom talk in their sleep. Of course they don't; the organ of speech must have an occasional rest.

ALL AROUND THE COUNTY

Events of the Week as Recorded by a Corps of Special Correspondents.

The Gee Whiz Social at Pescadero Was a Success.—Marriage Bells Will Soon Chime.

WOODSIDE, December 2—A. W. Jackson spent Sunday at his country home at this place.

Miss Helena Hansen of Bellvale made a short stay with her folks the first of the week.

The dance last Saturday evening was a great success both socially and financially, a neat sum being realized for the church.

Miss Edith Bottger has gone to San Francisco to the bedside of her friend Mrs. Berry who is quite ill.

The teaming season is rapidly drawing to a close, the late rains making the roads almost impassable.

Mrs. J. A. Folger was down from the city Sunday overlooking the extensive improvements going on at her beautiful home.

PESCADERO PEBBLES.

PESCADERO, December 2.—There were special services on Thanksgiving night at the [illegible]sional church. The church was beautifully decorated with fruits and flowers and vegetables. A very able address was made by the pastor. Special singing by the choir and children, and readings by Mrs. Shearer and Miss E. Jackson, made up a fine program. The collection was for missions. Ten dollars was contributed.

Joe Coville and daughter, with their friend, Roy Bailey, spent a few days in town last week as guests of L. Chandler. They were from Mountain View.

The Gee Whiz Social on Thanksgiving Eve was a musical success. The string band was from San Jose and all were fine players, making dancing a pleasure. It was not as well attended as the club could wish, but all had a delightful time and a fine supper was served at the Swanton House.

The C. E. Society and members of the Congregational church gave James Conghey and wife a reception on Friday last. A very nice program was arranged and games followed, and lastly, but not least, a fine collation was served. There were about fifty present, and all seemed to enjoy themselves to a late hour.

C. L. Wilson, formerly of this place, but now of San Francisco, is building himself a home in the Richmond district.

The marriage bells will soon ring up in the Harrison district. Seems to be quite an epidemic up that way.

Miss E. Leighton spent three or four days in the city and in Redwood, returning home Sunday night.

Mr. Rathke, the principal of the public schools, took advantage of the holiday to visit his home in Berkeley.

John Monteveldo paid our town a visit of a few days. He is a resident of South San Francisco.

Dr. C. L. McCracken and family spent Thanksgiving holidays in the city.

WILL BRANCH OUT.

Mr. Crowe Will Open Undertaking Establishment at San Mateo.

James Crowe, Redwood City's popular Coroner and Administrator, will open a branch establishment at San Mateo as soon as suitable quarters can be secured, which will be in the near future.

Mr. Crowe does not believe in doing anything by halves and the public may feel confident that the branch department to be established will be up to date in every particular and fully equal to that of any San Francisco firm. The fact that the place will be in charge of gentlemanly and courteous Richard Pigion, Mr. Crowe's nephew, is sufficient guaranty that those who are called upon to lay away their dead will be treated with the same kind and considerate feeling that have marked all of Mr. Crowe's business relations throughout his life.

A Banker's Advice.

Mr. Prudence.—I've got $50 saved up and I can easily lay by $10 per month. What safe investment can I put it in to make the most out of it?

Mr. Banker.—I would tell you to deposit your money in my bank here if I hadn't seen in the Times-Gazette that the Howard Estate is offering a few lots in the town of Burlingame on just your proposition and that will pay you a bigger dividend than our bank can. Their address is 206 Sansome street, San Francisco, and you had better write to them at once.

Ice-cream and confectionery at the Palm. Goldsmith, proprietor.

Catholic Fair Donations.

Mrs. J. F. Curry wishes to return thanks for cakes, sugar and various other articles received by her for ice-cream booth at late fair for the benefit of Mount Carmel church, also the following cash donations:

Sister Superior, Notre Dame convent, Santa Clara, $5; Judge Hannon, $3; Mrs. George Jenkins and Will Byrne, $2.50 each; Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. G. H. Buck, Mrs. Slade, Mrs. P. McEvoy and Dr. Stuttmeister, $2 each; Mrs. W. Brown, Mrs. Rumbol, Mrs. James Curran, Mrs. M. E. Hanson, Mrs. A. Hess, Mrs. W. H. Hanson, P. A. Ryan, C. Cussen and H. Anderson, $1 each; G. P. Hartley, and two friends 50 cents each.

HOOK AND LADDER No. 1.

Officers Elected For the Coming Year—An Entertainment.

At the regular monthly meeting of Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, held Thursday, December 1st, a jolly time was had. The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Foreman, George West; 1st assistant, Antone Genochio; 2d assistant, Daniel Mullen; secretary and treasurer, H. Mourot; fire wardens, G. Einstein, J. Daley. Delegates to elect chief, D. Mullen, H. Mourot.

Chief Joe Winter, being present, complimented the boys highly for the good financial showing of the Hooks and the general condition of the company. After choice selections by that little Napoleon of impersonators, Dan Mullen, the company sat down to an elegant spread.

The rendition of the Irish comedian by Gabe Einstein was so exceedingly funny that the entire company went into convulsions. George West came to the rescue by appearing a la "Senator" Hamden, with half his face blacked and wearing the regulation "stovepipe," etc.

Jack Daley as Mrs. Honora Mulcahy, in skirts and bangs, broke the company all up with his dancing and monologue. At the midnight hour the Chief proposed three cheers for the Department, and the company dispersed singing "Auld Lang Syne."

AN ELECTION CONTEST.

James T. Casey Alleges Fraud in the First Township.

James T. Casey, who was defeated for the office of Supervisor of the First Township by Julius Eikerenkotter by eight votes, through his attorney C. W. Eastin filed a contest in the Superior Court last Saturday.

In his complaint Casey makes numerous allegations. He charges that the election officers of Baden precinct counted 55 votes for Eikerenkotter that should have been counted for him; that twenty-five persons voted at Baden who did not reside in the precinct for ninety days prior to the election; that two young men that were under age were permitted to vote at the same precinct; he claims the election officers were under the influence of liquor and unable to intelligently attend to their duties; that at no one was permitted to inspect the ballots during the counting and while the counting was in progress the electric lights went out giving the election officers ample opportunity to mutilate the ballots. It is also alleged that while the ballots were in possession of the Board, and before they were forwarded to the County Clerk they were tampered with and a number of Casey votes destroyed.

All the allegations made are too numerous to mention.

Next Thursday Mr. Eikerenkotter is cited to appear and answer the allegations. He has engaged Geo. C. Ross to represent him. Mr. Eikerenkotter believes he will gain votes, instead of losing at the recount.

LODGE NEWS.

Companions of the Forest of America to be Instituted To-night.

Next Tuesday night at the I. O. O. F. Hall, Abraham Lincoln Lodge, No. 281, I. O. G. T., will have its regular meeting, which all members are requested to attend. The District Chief Templar and the district officers will be present to initiate ten new members. After the initiation refreshments will be served and a general good time observed. At the rate the Good Templars are growing they will soon have all the young people in town included in their membership.

The regular semi-annual election of officers of Court Madrone, F. of A., was held Thursday night in Foresters' Hall. The following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Chief Ranger, Fred Becker; Sub-Chief, Arthur Swift; Treasurer, Henry Rosenbaum; Financial Secretary, John J. Read; Recording Secretary, Charles Roller; Senior Woodward, Reube[illegible]lvin; Junior Woodward, William Smith; Senior Beadle, E. Demartini; Junior Beadle, Joe Isadoris Jr.; Doctor, J. L. Ross; Druggist, A. D. Walsh; Lecturer, H. E. Holmquist; Trustee, Jas. McGlynn. At the conclusion of the election Jas. Fayen, Harry Shermantine and Paul Fluger were initiated as members.

At the Wahl Hall on Thursday evening the Native Sons of the Golden West held their regular semi-annual election of officers. The following gentlemen were elected to serve: Past President, Fred Stalter; President, James Brown; Vice President, A. Ligouri; 2d Vice President, Jas. D. Hedge; 3d Vice President, Leslie Johnston; Marshal, Fred Glennan; Financial Secretary, J. F. Johnston; Recording Secretary, Chester Lovie; Trustees, Guy P. Hull and Con Cullen.

Madrone Circle, Companions of the Forest of America, will be instituted to-night at Foresters' Hall. The Circle will commence with seventy-five members, and there is every indication of a large increase in membership in the near future. After the business is finished a banquet will be served, followed by a dance.

The first anniversary of the Degree of Pocahontas will be celebrated December 14th at Red Men's Hall. Grand Pocahontas Mrs. Porter L. Bliss, of San Francisco, will be present. The business meeting will be concluded by literary exercises, refreshments, games and dancing.

Dr. Sharp and family of San Francisco are guests at the Oak Grove Villa. The Doctor owns ten acres to the west of the Sacred Heart Academy on which he will erect a handsome home next spring.

The ladies of Trinity church of Menlo Park will hold their annual Christmas sale and rummage sale at the rectory on Wednesday, December 7th at 1:30 P. M. Donations of any kind may be sent to the rectory.

The Gilroy Advocate, in its issue of last Saturday, stated that John MacBain had leased the Gilroy Hot Springs for a term of five years. Mr. MacBain, on leaving for the East a little over a week ago, made no mention to his friends that he intended engaging in the hotel business.

Curran Clark has disposed of the Foye tract of thirty acres across the road from C. W. Smith's residence to Messrs. Kent and Boyd of San Francisco. They will subdivide the property and put it on the market to be sold in small tracts.

A young man named Donovan died at St. Mary's Hospital on Wednesday from stomach trouble. For the past two years he was a student at St. Patrick's Seminary, and was regarded one of the brightest scholars attending that institution.

The Cemetery association, through its secretary, J. T. O'Keefe, is notifying owners of neglected plots in Holy Cross cemetery that steps will be soon taken to compel them either to abandon plots or permit unsightly structures on the same to be removed.

A retreat in preparation for the Jubilee of the Immaculate Conception will begin in the Church of the Nativity next Sunday at 8 o'clock a. m. Father Oswald, a distinguished member of the Capuchin Order of Friars, from Mendocino, will conduct the exercises.

Joseph Salfotti, for nearly forty years a resident of Mayfield and for many years roadmaster at that place, died last Monday. Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War, and a highly respected citizen. The remains were laid in their last resting place in Holy Cross Cemetery on Wednesday.

Young McGowan, who was killed in San Francisco last week by one Smith, was well known here, he having resided in Menlo Park during the time of the construction of St. Patrick's Seminary. The firm of Butler & McGowan had the contract, and the young man was one of the superintendents for his father's firm.

A suit in partition has just been commenced by a group of heirs of the Johnson estate for a division and distribution to the individuals of the various lands to which they now are undivided owners. The estate was distributed to the heirs, thirty-seven in number, several years ago. When the suit is consummated it is possible that the vast Johnson tract here will be sold.

A. S. Ferguson will begin business at Palo Alto at once. He has bought out Mrs. Ostrander and will restock the store. Mr. Ferguson started the first dry goods house at Palo Alto and made it a great success. He subsequently sold out to Frazer & Co. and bound himself not to engage in a similar business for a certain period. That time has expired.

Miss Ida Kugeler will be united in marriage at her mother's home in San Francisco, this evening, to Otto Denhard. The bride is a beautiful belle who spent her girlhood in Menlo Park, and has a host of friends who unite in wishing herself and husband a happy wedded life. Mr. Denhard is successfully engaged in the butcher business, and is prominent in fraternal societies. The mother of the bride, Mrs. Coxin, with her daughter Meta, will shortly take up their residence here.

Albert De Rome, the student at the Hopkins Art Institute, San Francisco, who was brutally hazed by his fellow students one night last week, is a former resident of this town. His father, A. P. De Rome, conducted a blacksmith shop here some years ago. As a result of his rough treatment young De Rome is partially paralyzed and it is thought he may never fully recover the use of his limbs.

Joe Holstrome, a hod carrier employed at the Stanford University, looked upon the wine when it was red Sunday, and as a consequence his horse ran away, throwing him out and completely demolishing the buggy. Holstrome was picked up in an unconscious condition near the depot and removed to the drug store, where he remained until the arrival of Dr. Ross. Later he was taken to his home in Mayfield. He was not seriously injured, though severely shaken up.

A new feature has been added to the already interesting program of exercises conducted weekly by the Gaelic class of Menlo. It is the feature of debate, in which Menlo Gaels are well known to excel. Last Sunday Professor Griffin submitted the following as the subject of debate for the evening: "Resolved, that the present alleged famine in Ireland be attributed to English misrule." President Kirby and Mrs. Edge argued for the affirmative, while David Roche and Mr. Schindler championed the negative. Owing to the lateness of the hour when the debate closed, Judge Griffin postponed his decision to the next meeting.

Mr. Timothy Hopkins, one of the trustees of the Stanford University, has recently donated to the museum a very valuable collection of Nubian, Egyptian, Indian and South Sea island curios. Mr. Hopkins recently donated the university a famous Korean collection of curios and a large collection of Egyptian textiles. He has also loaned the university his collection of Greek and Roman coins and papal medals. The Egyptian exhibits were gathered by Emil Brugsch Bey, curator of the Gizeh Royal Museum, from whom Mr. Hopkins secured them. They consist of representations of the sacred gods, emblematic charms, cartouches, porcelain figures and scarabs. Among the most interesting exhibits of the collection are a pair of old brass candlesticks from the old Franciscan mission of San Buenaventura, and a number of old pestles used by the fathers at Santa Barbara.

MARRIED AT PALO ALTO.

George Kellenberg and Miss Virginia Bracchi were united in marriage Monday afternoon at 1:30 in the Catholic parsonage by the Rev. Father McKinnon at Palo Alto. Miss Jennie Bracchi, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and J. Landersmitt best man. The bride and groom left that evening for San Francisco and will go on a trip to Los Angeles and southern pointe. On their return they will make their residence here. The bride is the eldest daughter of G. Bracchi and is an estimable young woman who possesses many charms and accomplishments. Mr. Kellenberg has been employed by Mr. Crane for a number years and is a most exemplary young man. He is a nephew of George Dillman of San Francisco who with his wife attended the wedding. Both Mr. Crane and Mr. Kellenberg learned their trade with Mr. Dillman.

PROPOSED RACETRACK.

Plan to Convert Hawes Tract Into a Sporting Resort.

According to the San Francisco Call of Monday there is likely to be big things a-doing on the Horace Hawes tract, just west of town. There will be race tracks, tracks for automobiles, club houses, cottages for summer visitors, a swimming lake and, in fact, everything which would tend to make life worth living for a monied man.

A company of San Francisco capitalists are said to be benind the scheme, and W. L. Ashe, who is managing the project, has been in Redwood frequently of late looking over the ground and supervising the work of the engineers who are making preliminary surveys. The Hawes tract consists of 460 acres of fine rolling land, and is admirably situated for such a purpose. It is the property of E. L. Reese.

Such a proposition, if carried through, would be the best thing that ever happened to Redwood, for it would bring not only capital but a very desirable class of people into our midst. There is no reason why capital should not be invested near our city, as it is one of the best in respect to climate and location in the valley. The country around is second to none in the county, and the railroad and water facilities tend to make it desirable for shipping animals or commodities. It is to be sincerely hoped that the scheme will be early put under way and that the project as planned will materialize.

CURES STOMACH TROUBLES

THE body gets its life from food properly digested. Healthy digestion means pure blood for the body, but stomach troubles arise from carelessness in eating and stomach disorders upset the entire system. Improperly masticated food sours on the stomach, causing distressing pains, belching and nausea. When over-eating is persisted in the stomach becomes weakened and worn out and dyspepsia claims the victim.

Thedford's Black-Draught cures dyspepsia. It frees the stomach and bowels of congested matter and gives the stomach new life. The stomach is quickly invigorated and the natural stimulation results in a good appetite, with the power to thoroughly digest food.

You can build up your stomach with this mild and natural remedy. Try Thedford's Black-Draught today. You can buy a package from your dealer for 25c. If he does not keep it, send the money to The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and a package will be mailed you.

THE CROWS OF INDIA

THEY ARE THE ARCH VILLAINS OF THE BIRD WORLD.

Two Species of the Feathered Vagabonds Exist Side by Side and Ply Their Tricks of Iniquity In Common—Larceny For the Love of It.

It is quite impossible for any one who has not sojourned in the "Land of Rogues" to appreciate the important part played by crows in the daily life of the Anglo-Indian. India without its crows is unthinkable; it could only be likened to London without its fogs. Wherever human beings have their abodes there are multitudes of corvidæ to be found, for the Indian crow is an inseparable appendage of town and village. Two species exist side by side in India, the great black-bird known to Anglo-Indians as the corby and the smaller gray necked species. Both birds lead lives of aimless vagabondage; both are scoundrels of the most pronounced type; both are sinners beyond redemption. Did the black crow exist alone it would be held up as the emblem of all that is evil and mischievous. As things are, its iniquities pale into insignificance beside those of its gray necked cousin. The very name of the latter bird is sufficient to raise the ire of the righteous man. To call the arch villain of the bird world "the splendid" is mere mockery of words. Jerdon, the famous Indian naturalist, "often regrets that such an inappropriate specific name should have been applied to this species, for it tends to bring into ridicule among the unscientific the system of nomenclature."

The Indian crow is able to utilize most things. A Calcutta bird has made itself famous for all time by constructing a nest of the wires used to secure the corks of soda water bottles. Bombay is very jealous of Calcutta, and the crows, of course, ape their betters. The Bombay birds determined not to be outdone by the Calcutta corvidae. Accordingly one of the former promptly built her nest of gold and silven spectacle frames stolen from Messrs. Lawrence & Mayo's factory. The value of the materials used in the construction of this nest was estimated at £20. But crows will appropriate things for which they can have no possible use. They commit larceny for the love of the thing. The Indian crow is the incarnate spirit of mischief. The bird will wantonly tear a leaf out of a book lying open on the table. My gardener, adds Mr. Dewar, puts every morning fresh flowers in the vases. This operation is performed on the veranda. One day the man was called away from his work for a couple of minutes. During his absence a crow swooped down and succeeded in taking a beakful of flowers and breaking the vase in which they were placed. A retired colonel of my acquaintance who lives in the Himalayas is a very enthusiastic gardener, and the crows are the bane of his life. They root up his choicest seedlings, sever the heads of his most superb flowers from the stalk and fly away with the little pieces of paper which he places in cleft sticks to mark where seed have been sown.

But it is in towns that the iniquity of the crows reaches its maximum. The Madras corvidae are a byword throughout the length and breadth of India. The hospital is their favorite playground. They are never so happy as when annoying the inmates. They know at once when a person is too ill to move. The consequence is that it has been found necessary to have made for all the tables wire covers which protect articles placed at the bedside from the ravages of the "treble dated birds." I have seen a Madras crow quietly helping itself to the contents of a basket which an old woman was carrying on her head. The bird was possessed of sufficient intelligence to refrain from alighting on the basket. Had it done so its presence would probably have been detected. It flapped along just above the top of the basket, keeping pace with the woman, and so, unperceived by her, made a meal off the contents. The knavish tricks of crows are by no means confined to human beings. As Colonel Cunningham truly says, "Any animal pets are, of course, even more than inanimate objects, subject to their attentions, and unless in wholly inaccessible places are constantly liable to have their food purloined and their lives rendered a burden by persistent and ingenious persecution." I once possessed a greyhound which used to be fed in the garden. A man had to stand over the dog while it was feeding; otherwise the crows would devour the greater portion of the meal. Their plan of campaign was simple and effective. They soon learned the dog's feeding hour and as it drew near would take up a position on any convenient tree. The moment the greyhound began to eat a crow would swoop down and peck viciously at its tail. The dog would, of course, turn on the bird, and the others would seize this opportunity to snatch away some of the food. The process would be repeated until the meal was over. Crows tease and annoy wild creatures with the same readiness that they worry domestic animals. They mob every strange bird in much the same way as the London street arab makes fun of any person in unusual attire.—Longman's Magazine.

Sudden Want of Information.

French Conceit.

Etienne Dumont, writing in the early part of the last century, said: "The prevailing character of the French is that of conceit. Every member of the assembly considered himself capable of undertaking everything. I often said that if you proposed to the first hundred men you met in the streets of Paris and to the same number in the streets of London to undertake the charge of the government ninety-nine of them would accept in Paris and ninety-nine would refuse in London."

The Tibetan Conscience.

The Tibetans offer daily prayers for the minute insects which they have swallowed inadvertently in their meat and drink, and the formula insures the rebirth of these microbes in heaven. Yet they eat meat freely and square their conscience with their appetite by the pretext that the sin rests with the outcast assassin, the public butcher, who will be born in the next incarnation as some tantalized spirit or agonized demon. That, however, is his own affair.

Optical Indecision.

The Daughter—No, mother, dear, I could not marry Mr. Smith. He squints. The Mother—My dear girl, a man who has £20,000 a year may be affected with a slight optical indecision, but a squint, never!—London Tatler.

THE PANTHEON.

It Has Withstood Vicissitudes of Over Twenty Centuries.

The Pantheon is the most interesting of all the interesting places of Rome. It was used for its present purpose as a place of religious worship before the foundations of the Coliseum were laid. Its huge doors have opened to admit the great ones of the earth, from Augustus Caesar to Napoleon, an assertion that will scarcely be disputed.

It stands in the very heart of old Rome, and the vicissitudes which have befallen the Eternal City during the 2,000 years of its existence have left it practically unchanged. The gilded bronze that lined its roof has been carried off to "decorate" St. Peter's, where, in the form of clouds and Cupids, cords and curtains, it fills the beholder with displeased amazement.

Its tiles of bronze and gold were removed to Constantinople 1,500 years ago, and the statues which adorned it have long since perished. But the mighty walls yet stand, firm as ever, sweeping up to the majestic dome, the largest, though not the highest, in the world.

One hundred feet across, a hundred feet high and perfectly circular, no architect could design a building more perfect in its proportions, more harmonious as a whole. It is lighted solely by an aperture in the dome, a circle thirty feet across. Standing on its marble floor one looks up to the greatest dome man ever raised and through that to the blue dome which bends above it, sending summer sun or winter rain through those bare yards of space.

The effect is so impressive, so entirely unmatched and unrivaled, that the dullest of hearts and most untaught of minds must perforce acknowledge its influence. A man may think St. Peter's "disappointing," may condemn the Coliseum as barbaric or decide that he does not care for the catacombs, but every man who has viewed it has been impressed, even to the pitch of respectful silence, by the Pantheon.

The huge leaves of the bronze door revolve on their mighty hinges as they have done since the days of the Caesars, and so perfectly balanced are they that a woman's wrist can unclose them. Through those doors they carried Julia, Caesar's daughter, with all the pomp of her imperial power about her. And after the lapse of twenty centuries King Humbert was brought across the selfsame threshold to sleep his last sleep in the ancient place.—Chicago Journal.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

makes pale, thin children fat and chubby. Overcomes wasting tendencies and brings back rosy cheeks and bright eyes.

It's surprising how quickly children respond to Scott's Emulsion. It contains just the element of nourishment their little bodies need. They thrive on it.

Even a few drops in the baby's bottle have a noticeable effect for good. Nothing better than Scott's Emulsion for growing children.

Why do substitutes for Scott's Emulsion cost less? Because they're worth less. With one you wait in vain for the benefits you had looked for. In Scott's Emulsion you get them. It never disappoints. That's worth the few cents difference in cost.

Tibetans and Jewelry.

Tibetans, like all people of a low civilization, delight in showy and massive jewels. A man is only poorly adorned with a heavy silver earring, coral mounted. The women wear regular jewelers' shops on their heads. Among the nomads their hair, arranged in innumerable small tresses that involve more than a whole day's work, is decorated with three great bands of woolen stuff or red silk strewn with rubies, shells, artificial pearls, corals, turquoises, amber beads, red agate, gold, silver or copper reliquaries.

His Waning Love.

"I am afraid George is beginning to grow cold toward me," half sobbed the young wife.

"What's he been doing now?" inquired her mother sharply.

"In his last letter he only sends me a thousand kisses, and always before he used to send 10,000,000."

The Wish He Doesn't Gratify.

"You told me that when we were married you would see that my every wish was gratified," remarked the bride of a few weeks.

"Well?" replied her husband rather curtly.

"Well, I wish I was single again."—Philadelphia Press.

She Was Going.

Hoax—My wife went out to shop today, and lost a pocketbook containing $20. Joax—Did she lose it going to the stores or coming back? Hoax—Going. I said there was money in it, didn't I?—Philadelphia Record.

One of the striking points of human nature is that a man usually can see how aptly criticism fits some one else.—Insurance Press.

Poor, but Polite.

"Want some money, do ye?" said the kind old lady. "Now, I wonder ef ye deserve it. What would you do with a penny ef I gev it to ye?"

"Lady," replied the polite beggar, "yer kindness would touch me so dat I'd buy a postal card wid de money an' write yer a note o' thanks."—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Leghorn.

City Niece—What kind of a chicken is that, Uncle Josh? Uncle Josh—That is a Leghorn. City Niece—How stupid of me! Of course I ought to have noticed the horns on his legs.—Chicago cutting operation, he may mean well but he is mistaken. In this era of advanced science it is A SHAME TO CUT ANY CASE OF PILES. Our method—the new way—of curing piles robs the old surgical way—still urged—of all its terrors and brings about results more effective because it is more radical and permanent. It obviates the tortures and distressing after-effects of surgery and is without failure, pain, danger or hindrance to daily pursuits. The treatment can only be applied by a competent physician, occupying but a few minutes' time. We have cured nearly 7000 men and women with method. Many of these cases were of 20 to 40 years standing, names of whom will be sent for quiet investigation. Also, without surgery cure Fistulas, Fissures, ulceration, etc. For particulars address THOS. T. KISNER, M. D., 81 Columbia Bldg, 916 Market street, San Francisco.

When a Man Tells You That a Bad Case of Piles Can Only Be Cured by a
